

PLAINTIFF
INVESTMENT FUNDING, LLC

PRIVACY STATEMENT

Background

We take your privacy very seriously and have adopted a policy to deal with these issues. This privacy statement discloses the privacy policy for PI Funding. It will notify you of what personally identifiable information is collected from you, how it is used and with whom it may be shared. It will also discuss the security procedures in place to protect the misuse of your information.

We Limit the Dissemination of Your Information

We collect information that you voluntarily give us via this website, email, mail, fax or other direct contact from you or your attorney(s) or as provided below. We will not sell or rent this information to anyone. We will use your information for contacting you and for the limited purpose of evaluating and possibly purchasing an interest in your lawsuit. We will not share your information with any third party outside of our organization, other than as necessary to respond to your application.

Types of Information We May Obtain

We will obtain information about you in the following ways:

1. Information we receive from you including verbal and written (including name, address, income, date of birth, and telephone number).
2. Information from publicly available records.
3. Information from consumer reporting agencies, criminal background reports and other sources and, where necessary, only after you have authorized our accessing such information.
4. Information relating to your lawsuit that we consider important such as, for example, reports, summaries and analyses by attorneys; medical records; pleadings; discovery items and other case information we may deem necessary or relevant to our evaluation of your application.

How We Use Your Information

We will restrict access to your information to employees, agents, representatives and third parties who we will specifically involve in your application and the completion of the transaction.

We will disclose information when required by law, such as to respond to a lawful subpoena, to prevent fraud, or to comply with an inquiry by a governmental agency.

Health Information Practices- We will not share your health information for marketing purposes.

Security

We maintain physical, electronic and procedural safeguards to ensure your personal information is treated responsibly and in accordance with our privacy policy, however we cannot guarantee that your personally identifiable information will never be disclosed in a manner inconsistent with this privacy policy (for example, as a result of unauthorized acts by third parties that violate applicable law). We use firewalls and virus protection to protect your information that is stored electronically. We also protect your information offline. Only employees who need the information to perform a specific job are granted access to personally identifiable information. The computers/servers in which we store personally identifiable information and paper files containing personal information are kept in a secure environment.

We reserve the right to change this policy at any time without notice. Should any new policy take effect, we will post that new policy on this site. Any such new policy shall apply only to information collected thereafter.