

Top 5 Reasons To Choose Frontier Van Lines

- 1. Frontier Van Lines is fully licensed, insured and bonded for long distance moving and local moving. Would you let an uncertified electrician work in your house? Of course not. The same concept applies to moving. It is a must to contract with a licensed mover. As a matter of fact, because of our experience and quality service, Frontier Van Lines holds one of the largest local authority in Western PA.
- 2. Moving professionals with decades of combined experience. We offer you full and partial moving, full and partial packing and flexible storage services to accommodate any size of move. Frontier Van Lines operates clean, late model, fully equipped moving trucks and we employ professional movers and packers. What it means to you as a customer is a job done right with care and professionalism.
- 3. Our long list of happy customers. Not only have they used us repeatedly, they also refer us to family and friends. Click here to read some of our customers' testimonials.
- 4. Great customer service before, during and after your move. Communication is key to any successful relationship. Because most misunderstandings can be easily avoided by understanding your moving quote, delivery window and valuation coverage, your Relocation Consultant will take the time to answer all your questions.
- 5. We care about the details! Frontier Van Lines knows that each move is a unique move. Regardless of the unique situations you may have at the time of pickup, at destination and/or anywhere in between, our moving professionals are here to accommodate you and your family. Some of these accommodations involve extra stops, building restrictions, over night storage or long term storage solutions.
